THE LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

The entire Republican legislative ticket in this county will be elected by a large majority. Practically, there will be no opposition to it. Senator H. Richardson will be elected by a larger vote than ever, and will have the honor of doing longer service in the State Senate than any other man ever elected to the office from Rock county. He is an industrious member of that body, and understands as much about the State institutions and their policy and needs, as any man who occupies a position in the Senate. He will not be only returned, but he will receive a bigger majority than he did in either 1876 or 1878.

The Republicans of the First Assembly district will elect Mr. M. V. Pratt, of Evansville, to the Assembly. He is a substantial business man of that place, is a member of the board of supervisors, has excellent business qualifications, and will make an active and faithful member of the Assembly.

Mr. Frank S. Lawrence, of this city, will be returned by the votes of the Second district. He made a good record last winter. He did a great deal of work, and carefully represented the interests of the people of his district. A more industrious member was never sent from this city, and for those reasons he will meet with no decided opposition next Tuesday.

Mr. James Moniz, of Harmony, will be elected by the Republicans of the Third district. He is well known throughout the district, and it is an honor to know him. He has been on the county board for years, and is chairman. He is a practical man, of strong mind, excellent qualifications, and will make a first rate member.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

There is every reason to believe that the Republican ticket of Rock county will be elected this fall by a greater majority than for many years. The men composing the ticket are not only entitled to the hearty and solid support of the Republicans on account of their general fitness and the excellent service they have rendered the county, but there will be a disposition on the part of Republican voters to stoutly endorse the principles of the party by giving the ticket the largest possible vote. This is the way to build up the party. It is the way to firmly establish Republican principles. It is the way to make the party strong, and to denounce every false theory of the Democratic party.

The nominee for sheriff, Mr. H. L. Skavlem, of Newark, is not only a popular young man, but he is one of that class of men, who commands the highest respect. He is a man of solid sense, trustworthy in every particular, and will dignify the office to which he will be elected by a large majority.

There is no man in Rock county who is more deeply respected or who carries with him the confidence of the people to a greater degree than Mr. Charles L. Valentine, candidate for register of deeds. He has served three terms with remarkable satisfaction to the people, and by common consent of the Republicans he was renominated, and his majority next week will be as flattering to him as will be honorable to the party.

Mr. Willis Miles, of the town of Janesville, is among the most faithful and attentive county treasurers ever elected to that office in Rock county. The purse of the county could not be placed in safer or more deserving hands, and for this reason he will not be behind in securing the united support of the party.

Another of the faithful officials is Mr. S. Morgan, county clerk, who is serving his fourth year. The duties of his office are complex in many particulars and are frequently laborious, but Mr. Morgan has been equal to the emergency, having been skillful in the discharge of the duties of the position, patient and obliging, and has kept the records of the county in admirable shape.

John W. Sale, who has been district attorney for six years will be re-elected by an overwhelming majority for another term. Rock county never had a more faithful or deserving officer than he. He has not only done a great amount of work as district attorney, but he has been energetic and able, and has done enough in the way of bringing criminals to justice to entitle him to the lasting confidence of the people.

For twelve years Mr. A. W. Baldwin has been clerk of the circuit court. This is a long time to hold an office, but it shows that the people of Rock county are not only satisfied with his services, but that they don't want a change. He is thoroughly conversant with the duties of the office, and is as gentlemanly and obliging a man as ever filled a public trust.

Mr. R. K. Leo has been put in nomination for county surveyor. He understands his profession thoroughly, and will make a splendid officer. Mr. O. Allen, of Milton, is the nominee for coroner, and is an excellent man for the place.

These are the men the Republican party has selected for county officers. There is not a drone among them, and let the Republican party see to it that they are elected by a majority which is worthy the party and complimentary to them.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Republicans of the Old North State Confident of Success.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—Mr. A. H. Dowell, publisher of the Asheville (N. C.) Pioneer, arrived in Washington today from North Carolina. He says the Republicans have entire confidence of carrying that State for Garfield. A quiet but active canvass is being made, and the Democrats are cast down. They admit freely that New York and Indiana. The negroes are correspondingly jubilant, and are going to vote to a man, and backed by 50,000 white Republican voters, make the State safe. He says that three, certainly, and perhaps four, Republicans, will be elected to the next Congress.

ARRESTED.

Johnny Davenport After the Garfield Letter Forger.

New York, Oct. 27.—The report is just in that two arrests have been effected for the Garfield letter forgery. Nothing definite is yet known. If it is proved correct I may not be able to get the facts before 2 or 3 o'clock.

New York, Oct. 27.—1:30 a. m.—The Garfield letter forgery has been followed up very closely, and detectives have been zealously at work since its publication to ferret out the author or authors of this despicable act. It has been intimated in dispatches to the Tribune that the officials were satisfied they had possession of a clue that would ultimately lead to the detection of the criminals, and that they were on a scent that would ultimately lead to the game is proven by the events of to-night. It leaked out about 1 o'clock that the detectives had run down two men, and that Captain Berghoes, of the Twenty-ninth precinct station had made their arrest. The prisoners were taken to the station and looked up.

Shortly afterwards United States supervisor John I. Davenport, and Police commissioner French appeared at the station.

Another of the faithful officials is Mr. S. Morgan, county clerk, who is serving his fourth year. The duties of his office are complex in many particulars and are frequently laborious, but Mr. Morgan has been equal to the emergency, having been skillful in the discharge of the duties of the position, patient and obliging, and has kept the records of the county in admirable shape.

equaled by a nation since Christ wept over Jerusalem. He said Colonel Vilas virtually claimed that manufacturers were a curse to this country. He showed that steel rails could now be bought for one-third less than before the tariff was imposed. Cotton cloth was cheaper, as was also woolen goods. England was harping on the folly of maintaining a tariff, and she was in sympathy with the Democratic party, and wanted free trade.

Governor Washburn said that the great issues of this campaign were on the Democratic side—the same that Lee and Jackson had fought for—and he then proceeded to give a history of what the Republican party had done for the country, and why it should be perpetuated. He said the first honest law which passed Congress had been vetoed by a Democratic President, James Buchanan. Governor Washburn said he did not want to leave the sanguinary garment, but he did want to say when the negroes were allowed to vote several Republican congressmen were sent up from the Southern States, and if they were allowed to vote now, with a full vote, and a fair count, half a dozen States in the South would vote for Garfield and Arthur. He then asked Colonel Vilas if he had heard that the thirteen, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments were legally adopted. The Colonel replied, "Yes," Governor Washburn said he was glad to hear him say so; it was the first admission he had ever heard by a Democrat to that effect. His vindication of Garfield from the infamous charges brought by the Democratic party was exceedingly eloquent, and created intense enthusiasm.

Colonel Vilas closed the debate in a speech of thirty minutes' duration, in which he attempted to answer the stubborn facts put forth by Governor Washburn, claiming that the Democratic party had covered itself with glory in the last twenty years by keeping the Republican party from impoverishing the country. The Colonel's usual was exceedingly eloquent, but made but poor headway against the hard facts brought out by Governor Washburn. At the close of his speech he proposed three cheers for Governor Washburn, which were given with a will, and then the audience gave three more for Colonel Vilas.

A CHANCE FOR PROMOTION. Who Shall be Chief Justice of Wisconsin? MADISON, Oct. 26.—Governor Smith has been interrogated in regard to the appointment of a new chief justice of the supreme court, but says that he will give the subject no serious consideration until after the election. He also expressed a desire to learn something of the wishes of the prominent Republicans of the State before taking action in the matter, as the duty put upon him by the death of Chief Justice Ryan he feels to be one of great responsibility and importance to the legal fraternity, and to the people of the State at large. The Governor will not be left long in the dark in regard to public sentiment, as the question is being freely discussed in both legal and political circles, and by the local press of the State. The Bar of Janesville is first in the field with its candidate in the person of the Hon. J. B. Cassidy, of that city, whom his lawyer friends have endorsed for chief justice without regard to political affiliation. Mr. Cassidy is not only a fine lawyer, but also a politician of some celebrity, since he headed the Wisconsin delegation in the late National Republican Convention, and started the boom in favor of the nomination of General Garfield. He was President of the last Republican State convention that nominated Smith for Governor, and that circumstance, it is thought, will weigh in his favor.

FORGER CAUGHT.

WAUKESHA, Oct. 26.—A man who gave his name as Geo. Watson, and who was charged with forging a note on J. D. Putney, of this place a short time ago, returned here this week and was immediately recognized and to-day arrested. This is the same man who forged a note on A. D. Hendrickson about a year ago, for $150, for which he was sent to State's prison. He will be tried the 4th of next month.

BERNHARDT.

Her Arrival and Prospective Debarcation this Morning.

New York, Oct. 27.—Bernhardt is here. The long agony of anxiety of the fashionable theatre-going circles of New York is over, and a new emotion convulses the feminine heart—the prospect of witnessing her on the tragic stage. The American arrived at Sandy Hook at 10:10 o'clock last evening, and the news of her arrival spread rapidly through the city. Immediately on receipt of the intelligence preparations were begun at the Albemarle Hotel for the reception of the famous actress. Everything was already in readiness, but the fact that she was so near at hand suggested additional delicate touches to the elegant suite of apartments destined to be graced by the versatile Parisian queen of the stage. At first it was thought that she might possibly reach this city last night, but inquiry proved that this was impracticable. The time it would take the American to steam from Sandy Hook to quarantine rendered her debarcation out of the question, and forced her to remain one night longer on board. At 5 o'clock this morning the steamer Blackbird will leave Pier 18, foot of Cortlandt street, with Manager Abbey, Lester Killick, Steele Mackaye, and a number of other friends, delegations from some French societies, members of the press, and a band of music, who will escort Mile. Bernhardt to the city. The steamer will arrive at her pier foot of Morton street, about 9 o'clock a. m., and carriages will be in waiting to convey Mile. Bernhardt to the Hotel, and the members of the suite, to the Albemarle hotel.

Mrs. E. H. Perkins, Creek Centre, Warren Co., N. Y., writes: "She has been troubled with Asthma for four years, and had to sit up night after night with it. She has taken two bottles of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and is perfectly cured. She strongly recommends it, and wishes to act as agent among her neighbors." Sold by A. J. Roberts, and Croft & Sherrer.

Theodore Tilton is back from Europe. His new lecture is entitled "The World's To-Morrow." He is under the management of Mr. Charles Mumford, late of Cooper Institute, now of Red Bank, N. J.

When pain assail and Cramps prevail, You feel as if you'd die; Don't waste your time, in vain despair, But Spring Blossom at once try. Sold by A. J. Roberts and Croft & Sherrer.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Special Correspondence to the Gazette. CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—That dreaded horse disease, "epizootic" appeared in Chicago over a week ago, but in rather a mild form. The West Division Railway Company has over 50 horses on the sick list, and the North and South side companies about 75 animals. The American Express Company, whose horses were first attacked, are working them right along, but with the best of care. Some street cars have been withdrawn, in order to give the animals rest and care. It is thought that if the weather remains cool and dry, the disease will soon abate.

Mr. McCulloch, Vice President of the Pennsylvania railroad, said in my hearing recently, "The future of Chicago seems measureless. It excites my wonder and admiration, and every time my business calls me here. Its volume of commerce and population, seem doubled every time I enter its streets. I am staggered by its immensity; I am proud of the world." It is one of the wonders of the world.

The five leading dry goods houses, sold since January 1st, to date, $64,300,000 worth of goods.

A gentleman, by name, D. B. King, residing on Wabash Avenue, while digging a posthole, near his residence, last Wednesday, unearthed a large, finely cut diamond, of the first water. It is valued by experts at $7,500. This same lucky individual while residing on West Congress street, some five years ago, found near the foundation of an old stone wall, an iron box containing $1750 in gold coin, and $187 in silver besides two diamond rings valued at $110 each.

A new board of trade building is projected, and will be erected ere long, to cost $3,500,000. It will be eight stories high, and one of the finest in the world. The old building, although of mammoth proportions, is entirely inadequate to transact the ever increasing business now being done.

The North Chicago Rolling Mill Company sustained a loss of nearly $3,000, on their works at South Chicago, by the great gale of Saturday, the 9th instant. The blast furnace plant blew in and seriously injured four workmen. It will take nearly one month to restore the works and roof.

Colonel Breckenridge, of Kentucky, and Hon. Lyman Trumbull, addressed Democratic meetings on Saturday evening, the latter of whom paid a high compliment to General Garfield, which he said he could not help.

Isolated cases of small pox are continually coming to light, and much fear is manifested that this dread disease will greatly increase during the coming winter. The health department are using their utmost efforts for abating it.

Our Carter's latest edict is, that all city employees must vote the Democratic ticket or be discharged. The majority laugh at him, and will in the coming election assert their independence.
